“ When those that we love close their eyes in death, it is very hard for us to sometimes continue without them. We miss all the things about them that seemed to add meaning and substance to our lives. How good to know that the precious memories of them will always remain close to our minds and hearts. When we feel a little down, how good to know that we can turn to our loving heavenly father and find inner peace and calmness. He even invites us to throw our burdens upon him. Psalms55:22 He is willing and waiting to come to our aid because he loves us that much!! I pray that you will find the peace of God and that it will provide you with faith, hope and much much contentment. Once again I am truly sorry for your loss!

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. May the comforting promises from God ease your pain during this difficult time. One of which is found at Isaiah 25:8. There it says "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

Again, please accept my sincere condolences for your loss.

“ Your mom has been in my life since day one. Mary and mom spoke almost every day for many many years even before voice mail and call waiting. When she came to see mom the day she passed you could see and feel the love they had for each other.

They were friends for so many years, and now they are reunited. I know they are having a grand time in heaven and they are with friends and family that have gone on in years passed.

Cherish the memories and the love she had for all of us. Be blessed and know that she is now at peace and with God the Father.

In loving memory,

William H Cogwell, III

“ I'm praying that God grants you strength at this time, and that He gives you comfort that is as good as a mother's touch.
