“ *To my dear family,
I was very saddened to hear of the passing of our great Aunt Adalaida. She has been with us for a very long time. To God be the glory for her longevity of life, for she is at peace now. God has a plan for each of us, and this is all part of it.*

I thank God for my cousin, James Covington with such a caring heart, who took care of our Aunt so very well, She depended on him. and he has always been right there for her. God will richly bless you for all you have done cous.

I'm sorry that I can't be there with you all during this celebration of life for our Auntie, and yes our hearts ache when we lose a love one. Reminding you that healing moves at its own pace. Be kind to yourselves and take it one day at a time. Remain close to the Lord, keep the faith, and He will give us peace.

“ To the Family: Mother McCall's passing left a void in our family, she was a faithful attendee at services at the Camelia Gardens Chapel, she had a very quiet spirit and spoke only when she had something encouraging to say. We know that she's in a better place, a place that we all must one day see for ourselves. We pray that God will strengthen you at this time and in the days to come. We loved her and will miss her too.

“ McCall family,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing one day soon your love one will wake up and not have to worry about ever being sick, growing old and dieing. "Isaiah 25:8;33:24" give us this promise "No more sickness or suffering of any kind." When I loss a love one just recently this was a comforting reminder for me. During this time when nothing make sense, know that Jehovah is a God of comfort and never intended for any of us to see death. He has an appointed time when he will do away with death forever.
At a time that is good for you, visit this web site, it will answer all questions you may have about death and many other questions. www.jw.org. I hope you have been encouraged by the sited scriptures and will read them in full from your own Bible.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth

“ I'm sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Jehovah God promises that very soon death and all sorrow will be a thing of the past.

Revelation 21:3,4. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. "

Also, he promises that there will be a resurrection. This real hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again is found at Acts 24:15.

I hope the promises of the Bible can bring you and your family comfort during this difficult time.
