“ Donna, my friend and my sister, know that I am praying for you during this sad and difficult time. Your mom was a dear! I will always remember her bright smile ... from our UNCG days, when she made sure you had snacks & Hawaiian punch to share with us all to our fun-filled trip to VA Beach and listening to the steel drums. Who knew Ms. Alease liked steel drums??? You have been a faithful daughter, and a mother could not have asked for more. The pain is fresh now, but in time you will come to know that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

May God continue to strengthen you and give you peace!

“ Donna I am so sorry to hear of your moms death, she was always like a angel to me ,and to Bob, and all who knew her. We had many great times together, while sharing our moms with each other at Pettigrew. I can see that big smile now ,a smile no one could ever replace. I just want you to know I love you and I give you the praise for being the best daughter ever. Your mom always knew you loved her so much, she might not of told you at the end, because she couldn't ,but I saw it in her face every time you entered her room and brightened it up. She knew, and she was always so happy to see you. I loved her too, who couldn't? I Just happened to get on here and I told Bob, Donnas mom died. It made me sad ,brought back so many memories, but good ones. I know she is happy now walking beside the Lord with my mom. We were so fortunate to have them for so long, but I can tell you I miss my mom like it was yesterday, and know you will. You will never have any regrets, you did everything for her and more, you kind of gave up your life for hers. You will be well rewarded oneday, and we will see them again in that beautiful place called Heaven!. GOd bless you and your family! Love Donna ray Roberson<3
