“ Chabo and Family: My thoughts and prayers are with each of you at this difficult time. Mrs. Chavis was always a very nice, soft spoken and easy-going woman. The fact that she lived to be a centenarian speaks volumes of a Godly woman and a life well-lived. May her precious memories help to ease your pain and comfort you because I know they will live forever in your hearts. Asking God to wrap His loving arms around all of you and give you strength in the days ahead. Sleep in Heavenly peace Mrs. Chavis. Prayers, hugs and much love to all.

“ I cherish fond memories of “Momma Chavis”. That’s what I called her when we attended Orange Grove. I remember picking her up at her home on Sunday mornings and we were off to Sunday school and church. We shared many stories. She shared her wisdom and I listened. She was special person God placed in my life. I thank God for a long life well lived. My condolences to Anthony and the entire family and friends.

Cousin Annie, God allowed you to live to be 100 years old on your last birthday in July 2025. And I 'll always cherish that I could be included in your celebration. I always considered it a joy to be in your company. ❤️

“ Dear Anthony and members of the Chavis, McKinnie and Best Families:

It is with heartfelt sympathy that I learn of the passing of Annie Mae. She was a very kind and gentle lady. Please accept my condolences. She was patient and caring and this was evident in the care she gave her patients while working at Duke. She lived the verse "...treat others the way you want to be treated..." She treated people with respect and she was humble. Anthony, you are to be applauded and appreciated for taking care of your mom. She loved you dearly. I pray God's bountiful blessing upon each of you during this time. God in His infinite wisdom allowed Annie Mae to enjoy long life, love, family, and friendship. And, He has rewarded her by taking her to live with Him.
