Mother, Evangelist. I love you and Miss you so much. When I got the News, I was Sooo hurt till I couldn't even Cry and couldn't even say A Word. But now I can. Now I do cry. When I had just left your home 2 Weeks later, Mother you didn't tell me You were leaving me. I'm still hurt to this day. I miss you so much. I know the dead knows Nothing, But I'm just expression my feelings to whom it may Concern. Jean, Tracy, Wanda, Etc. We shared such good Spiritual times Together. Oh! Glory I will never forget, and will always Cherish them in my 💜💜💜. 💕💕 Love you Mother, Gone but Not Forgotten. We will meet again. To God Be The Glory. 💕💕 Love, your Spiritual Daughter, Evange

“ Mary Dempson and Family

Our deepest condolences to the Collins and Burton families. Annie was a kind loving mother, grandmother and friend. I had the privilege of being an extended family member for 30 plus years and we shared many wonderful times together. I will truly miss this Godly woman who always had kind words for everyone. May God bring comfort to her daughters and grandchildren and all family members.
