“ I miss you Aunt Mett! So many memories of us doing fun things together. You were such a wonderful woman. I'm honored that you were my god mother for 26 years. I love you, you will never be forgotten.

“ I'm sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Jehovah God promises that very soon death and all sorrow will be a thing of the past.

Revelation 21:3,4. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. "

Also, he promises that there will be a resurrection. This real hope of seeing our dead loved ones live again is found at Acts 24:15.

I hope the promises of the Bible can bring you and your family comfort during this difficult time.

“ When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. I'm here if you want to talk. Hold on to your memories, and let them guide you during this time of sadness. God is always in your corner at a time like this....and so am I. You're in my thoughts every step of the way. I wish I was able to attend the services. Met and I were very close and I will forever cherish our memories. Family, I love each of you.

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is a difficult thing to deal with. Although Ms. Armetta is no longer living, you can find comfort from the words found in John 5:28, 29 “Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.” There will be a time when Ms. Armetta will wake up from death and you will be able to enjoy her once again. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
