“ I were reading something about Shirley Caesar and ran into this pic. Ok my goodness. I remember him. My mother name were Beatrice and we lived on the same street as Bernard did. Mt older brother name were Kirk and my oldest sister is Claudette, I remember, Leon Turner, Mr. Ernest, Mother Bell and she were the oldest lady on the street. She were like my grand mother. She helped raised me. Any so sorry to see that he went on. We all have out time to come and be with the lord. Shirley Caesar knew my mother as well. Any way my heart goes out to his family. May God be with you all.

 Brother-Vernon Sterling(Sabrina)
 Nieces & Nephews & Other Family & Extended Family and Friends.

We were sorry to learn of the passing of Bernard. He use to live 3 or 4 houses down from our family home, on the opposite side of the street with His two Brothers and their late Grandparents.(Mr. Joe & Mrs Doll Trimble. Godly and good people and neighbors. Our neighborhood was called Georgetown and consist of two streets. Our Parents (Mr. Jim & Mrs. Pearl-Mennett) had a snowball stand in the front yard and sold snowballs,dixie cups, homemade goodies, and other snacks. The stand was like one of the neighborhood hangout day or nights.

Bernard & his brother and my brothers and others would be out there playing games, joking, laughing having fun and Christmas Holidays were like most others celebrate lots of different foods etc. with families neighbors and friends visiting and Bernard and His Family was there with us. Regardless Bernard took care of the gift the good Lord had given Him and was taking care of the Lord Business by singing at Churches and with The Gospel Group - The Voices of Zion and got a bigger Blessing joining The Honorable Pastor & Queen of Gospel Mrs. Shirley Caesar & Her singing Group for all these years lots of traveling, meeting some influential people,Wife & Family a very fulfilling Life and coming from our neighborhood and Baton Rouge even thou He been gone for years while here always respectful and it is easy to Acknowledge Him as The Honorable

 Bernard B. Sterling Jr as well.

Bernard's beautiful, silky free flowing voice comes from the heart and reaches deep within the hearts of others. He always sounds great, but especially the solo in "Give Me A Clean Heart"

We will Forever Remember Bernard.

*May God's Love, Strength, Peace, and Blessings continue to be with Each One of You. You will continue to be in our thoughts and prayers.
