“ I remember Brad from UNC. I was on the football team a couple of seasons while he was there. I am a cancer survivor and I've been looking up people from my past that I hadn't heard about in some time. We weren't close but were always cordial to each other and I remember him being a beast on the track. My condolences to the family, albeit several years late.

“ While I only met Brad two times in his life, he made an indelible mark on mine. He was compassionate, humble, loving and kind...genuine qualities that are not often found in one individual. He is absent from us but present with God. All things being relative, he was on this earth for forty-nine years; this fact may not bring comfort to the family and loved ones right now, but God will give you His peace, the peace that will sustain and keep you all.

Mrs. Sullivan, Deanna and the girls, Dewanda and Dwight, my deepest, sincerest thoughts, prays and love are with you and the entire family.

*Be encouraged, my friends -

“ I had the privelege of working with Brad many years ago in Charlotte. He was a great person to work with and I considered his friendship something that made me better at both my job and my personal pursuits. It was clear how much Brad valued family and I was just thinking about him yesterday reflecting on when he helped me train for us to run a half Marathon in Charlotte. I consider myself blessed for having a chance to know him. My thoughts and prayers are with the family as they cope with the loss.

“ Brad and my brother Duane were good friends growing up in Durham. Even as young man, Brad was unfailingly thoughtful, warm and considerate of others. He had a special spirit, a kind heart and an eagerness to experience life fully. And he was always a gentleman, even as a little boy. As he grew up, his core personality and manner remained constant. He was popular and a great athlete, a combination that can sometimes alter the character of less mature and grounded people, yet Brad remained true to his essential character. When I think of Brad, those charmed years we all knew while growing up in Durham, the hopefulness and promise of that time, I am just heartbroken by this tragedy, as are all of us who knew Brad and grew up with him. My heart and that of my family, goes out to the Sullivan family, especially his wonderful mother, Kaye. God bless you all and embrace you in fold of his tender mercies. Brad, you will be forever be missed.

“Wow. Can't believe I'm writing on here about Brad. I'm humbled that he's not with us. Brad hired me in 2002 with The Minute Maid Company(Coke). He saved my career. Recently we had been able to reconnect and I think as great having him back for the short period of time we Had. Stories about his girls were always entertaining as the two of us were avid track fans. I'm still scratching my head on this one. Brad was a gem. A rare stone. Beautiful, caring, serious, Daddy, fun, leader, integrity... This is Brad in my mind. I'll miss him bad. It tugs at my heart. To the Sullivan family, I don't know you but I Love you guys. And I loved Brad. I'll miss him.

“Brad and I go back as teammates and competitors since our Jr Striders days in 1976 where our Bantam Boys team set a national record in the 4x100 relay. We battled for the next 20 years as friends and competitors always with respect for the gifts God gave each of us. Our battles even extended to the football as I played at NC State and he for UNC. My brother rest in peace and know your memory lives on in those whose lives you have touched!

“The Sullivan family have been very welcoming to Natalie, Carolyn and I as we transitions to Ridge Point last year. I really enjoyed the times I sat next to Brad during the varsity soccer games when we watched our daughters play. Brad was obviously very proud of Whitney, with good reason. Brad was very knowledgeable and had a great sense of humor. He will be missed!

“ To the Sullivan Family,

My husband and I send our heartfelt condolences to your family on the passing of Brad. Brad and Bernard were teammates at UNC. We were (and still remain) deeply saddened to hear of this. We will continue to lift you up in prayer knowing that God is able to comfort and keep you. May God grant you peace that surpasses all understanding.

Deanna, much love and blessings to you always.

“ To the family of Brad Sullivan,

I want to extend my deepest sympathy for the lost of your son, brother, husband and father. I will miss Brad's smile and his loving spirit when I think of our Durham Strider track and field days. The Loaf of Bread was our family ride to all track and field meets back then and we had great memories. Thank you Sullivan Family for sharing Brad with us ALL. Rest in Peace my brother! #durhamstriderfamily4life!
