“ I would like to give my condolences. Losing a loved one is very painful and it stings. Even though Brittney is not with you now, I hope you can find encouragement from the scripture found at Acts 24:15 which explains that there will be an earthly resurrection. That will be a reality in the future. Once again, I'm sorry for your loss and your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Deneen & rest of the family I send my sincere condolences. I know it's hard now but Brit is in a better place with the angels and now she can be at peace. I'm truly thankful that it worked out that she did get to spend some time with Sabriah shortly before her death (thanks to you). Just keep looking up as we will all meet again. All of my best to your family in the days & weeks ahead. Linda Suggs

“ Miss Brittney, I truly wish that we had met under different circumstances. I knew that you had a good and kind heart under that tough exterior! I pray that you are at peace and that hurt or harm will no longer find you. To the Cameron family, I love you guys...my thoughts and prayers are with you. Good bless!
