

Mr. Cleveland Tyrone Webster

June 12, 1965 - November 12, 2018

Mr. Cleveland Tyrone Webster, age 53, son of the late Cleveland Eurquhart and Sylvia Eurquhart, was born June 12, 1965, in Durham, North Carolina. He departed this life on Monday, November 12, 2018, at his home residence.

Cleveland attended and graduated from Hillside High School. He also pursued additional education in which he attended New York City College of Technology. He received training as a skilled architect and furthered his career by helping construct final blueprints for the Brooklyn Bridge in New York City, New York. Cleveland eventually expanded his career by becoming a skilled computer technician at Mitsubishi's Premier Manufacturing Plant in Durham, North Carolina. He thoroughly enjoyed playing sports, and he loved the game of basketball with a deep passion. Other hobbies included listening to music, fishing, and social events with close friends and family.

Cleveland is preceded in death by his grandmothers, Elouise Webster and Geneva Freeland; his grandfather, Milton Webster; two aunts, Lucille Martin and Janet Eurquhart; and his uncle, Haywood Eurquhart (Uncle Honey).

Cleveland is survived by his wife, Valerie Webster; his mother, Sylvia Eurquhart (Roy Cameron) son, Dakota Webster (Tonita); daughter, Tivianna Webster; grandson, Levi Webster, who dearly loved his grandfather "GP"; his aunts, Beatrice Webster (Suggs) and Mary Ann Webster of Durham, N.C.,

Mildred Webster-Holman (Uncle Larry Holman) of Baltimore, M.D., Jackie Jones of New York City, N.Y., Mary Williams of Durham, N.C.; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services will take place on Sunday, November 18, 2018 at Agape Christian Church, 1112 Fairview Street, Durham, North Carolina 27707 at 3:00 p.m., with a family visitation beginning one hour prior to the service.
