

Coazie E. Farrington

August 28, 1922 - October 21, 2022

Mrs. Coazie Estes Evans Farrington was born August 22, 1922, and departed this life October 21, 2022, at Carver Living Center.

She was born of the late Bodie Estes and Minnie Bailey Estes.

She received her education in Wake County and was married to the late George W. Farrington. Mrs. Farrington joined Pine Grove Baptist church at an early age.

Mrs. Farrington was defined by her mission to feed the hungry, comfort the sick, provide for the needy and educate all her children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Her mission was manifested by cooking for the Merrick Moore, Mount Zoar community whenever needed. In the summer she was a camp cook for the Y-teen program at the YWCA, also teaching sewing and tailoring.

Mrs. Farrington's greatest mission was educator in chief in her family, Granny's motto was "if other children could do it, her kids were going to do it". This was carried out by buying textbooks, paying tuition, and providing transportation to all her children from elementary through college.

The hobbies she loved most were ceramics, knitting and crocheting.

She is survived by her daughter Patricia Evans Holliday (James A. Holliday), Grandchildren, Regina Barbee (Ronald), Karen Holliday, and Vincent Holliday, Great Grandchildren, Tamara Savoie (Jeff Savoie), Curtis T. McLaughlin, Darius Pearson-Holliday, and Derrian Holliday, and Great-Great Grandchildren, Jaylan McLaughlin, Jaida Savoie, and Christian Ortega.

The family wishes to give special recognition to Granny's neighborhood children. All our love and gratitude to Betty, Al, Sadie May, Stella, Marion, Robin, Booker, Debra, Gloria Jean and David

The Graveside Homegoing Celebration will take place on Sunday, October 30, 2022, at twelve o'clock, at Glennview Memorial Park, NC Hwy 55, Durham, North Carolina 27713.

Please keep this family in your thoughts and prayers.
