“ Today we lay my cousin affectionately called "Uncle Dave" to rest. I never imagined I would be saying rest in peace to him so soon. Dave and his family Aunt Arnica, T'Lay and T'Lez lived in North Carolina (NC) and I live in the Bahamas with the Foulkes family that reside here.

I would look forward to Dave's visits to the Bahamas because it is when I would get the chance to see him and spend time with his family.

My last memory with uncle Dave was on his birthday December 9th. I had called to wish him a happy birthday. He was in with a patient and Aunt Arnica promised to pass the message on and that she did.

Later that evening, uncle Dave returned the call. My two year old daughter Carmenrose sang happy birthday to him. It was the cutest thing ever!!

My husband talked to HIS Aunt Neecy and then we all talked about a documentary on Netflix that we were going to watch and recap later. T'Lez said it was worth the watch so we took him up on the offer.

We never got the chance to recap the Netflix documentary and we found out about Dave's passing on my daughter's birthday. She turned 3 years old on December 20th.

Thanks again for everything uncle Dave. You definitely made a difference in my life and I promise to pay it forward.

Precious memories of Dave Foulkes will live on in the hearts of my family, the Cartwright's nee Foulkes, Julius Foulkes, Randy Foulkes Sr., Randy Foulkes Jr., Michelle Lewis and the lives he has touched in the Bahamas.

“Niecy, T’Lez, T’Lay, and Wendy sending you all our love during this difficult time. Davie’s memories will always live on.

Davie had a rare gift for offering candid, humorous perspectives on almost any topic. The last time we spoke, we talked for hours commiserating over the woes of both the Valley Boys and the Miami Dolphins. I think I laughed the entire time. No matter the subject, he always found a way to tie it back to God, Niecy, and T’Lez and T’Lay.

From the day you moved to Stapleton Gardens when you were literally ready to fight me and half the neighborhood to the day you left us, I was honored to share a meaningful part of your journey. I learned so much from you along the way.

You will always remain in our hearts, bro. Get your rest. Well done Davie. 🙏🙏

Heartfelt condolences to the family of Dr. Dave Foulkes. Davie as we affectionately called him in his youth will be remembered fondly, the distance across the sea did not diminish our friendship. Technology kept us in touch, each conversation was one of laughter and fun filled memories. His infectious laugh would fill the airwaves as we reminisced about our childhood days and caught up on current events and our families. He will certainly be missed, but the good memories will last forever. May his soul rest in peace and rise in glory on that great resurrection day. The Butler family from The Bahamas.

“ If ever there was a heartbreak, this truly was one. :-(. I was #5 on an Omega Psi Phi Fraternity line which was anchored by #9, you my Dear Friend. Davey you always represented the often misused term, "gentle giant". However, when needed spoke loud and proud with that strong, Bohemian vanacular that nobody understood but Niecy, T'Lez, T'Lay and maybe other Bohemian's close by listening. Foulkes Dawg, you were that Quiet Storm when need be. If I can be honest, Davey I looked up to you because my dude. You figured out life. You figured out true happiness, and how it should be distributed and shared with your friends and family. Which you and Niecy did constantly. For that, Davey you have forever craved out a place in my heart. For that, you have forever etched out a place in my thoughts. For that, with tears running down my face right now, even in your passing, you will forever be a FRIEND FIETTS.... You will definitely be missed, but never forgotten. Niecy, T'Lez and T'Lay, you know Uncle Duane love's you guys and as I virtually hug you right now, know that I will continue to hug you in my thoughts and prayers. “ I am soooo sad and heartbroken to read of Dave's passing. It has been too long since we saw each other but the last time was in the mall and he was laughing cause he was there with you and telling me how much he 'loved' shopping :). He was a great friend when working at GSK with me and the Compound Registration team. I am truly sorry. My prayers are with you and your family. Brenda Ray
