

Mr. Derrick L. Moore

August 10, 1981 - December 10, 2021

It is with great sadness that the family of Mr. Derrick L. Moore, age 40, announces his passing which occurred on Friday, December 10, 2021, at his home.

Derrick L. Moore born on August 10, 1981, to his parents Gloria Moore Daniel and Kenneth Hinton.

Derrick loved cooking and was a 'master' of the grill; a pastime that he absolutely adored. He also loved fishing (especially night fishing) and painting. Derrick was a genuinely sweet man with an amazing personality and wonderful sense of humor; he always turned a bad situation into a laughable story. He had a knack for making everyone laugh, even in serious situations. His love for his family and friends was known to everyone that came in contact with him...(he did not play about family). Derrick embraced life with joy; even the smallest things excited him and brought a smile to his face. As mischievous and as tricky as he could sometimes be, he never neglected to share the wisdom he received from his grandfather and older friends, with the young men around him. 'Debo' as he was affectionately called, was known and loved throughout his community because of his kind heart, his giving nature, and unconditional love for others. Derrick also loved to watch Lifetime TV movies and dared you to laugh at him about it. He was an amazing man and an extraordinary individual and will be greatly missed by us all.

Derrick is preceded in death by his brother Shaun, maternal grandfather Edward Moore, paternal grandfather and grandmother, Cleveland and Lydia Hinton, and granddaughter Serenity.

Derrick leaves to cherish his memory his parents, Gloria Daniel (Rodney) and Kenneth Hinton (Marcia); grandmother, Annie E. Moore; daughters, Lashawna Moore and ShaTan Lloyd; sons, Derrick Moore, Jr., Quante' Parker and Dante' Parker; companion Nikki Poole; five grandchildren, Josiah, King, Noah, Melanie, and Sanai; sister, Gabrielle Daniel; three brothers, Tyrece Moore, Kenneth and Roderick Hinton; one nephew, Tyrece Moore, Jr.; and a host of aunts, cousins, friends and loved ones.

A public viewing will be held from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. on Friday, December 17, 2021, at Scarborough & Hargett Celebration of Life Center, Inc., 309 N Queen Street, Durham, NC 27701.

A service to celebrate the life of Derrick L. Moore has been scheduled for Sunday, December 19, 2021, at 1:00 p.m., at Antioch Baptist Church, 1415 Holloway Street, Durham, North Carolina 27703, with a viewing beginning at 12:00 noon.

“ Super late because I'm still processing this years later (even though I still don't want to have to)... I miss you dearly and on a daily my friend. More than words can say, but I'm sure you know that. You'll always stay a favorite part of my lifetime here on this earth. Thank you for your unconditional love and care through the many, many years, the teary-stomach aching laughs (lol) and just being who you are to everyone. Your heart posture has always been A1 and has always stood out to me. I'm praying God is rewarding you for that in the afterlife as you have become our guardian angel out here. I love you foreva-eva & after💕💕

“ My deepest sympathy to the Moore family from the Ellis, Taborn, Russell and McGhee family. Derrick will surely be missed in this neighborhood! To not see him calling out to me, “hey Ms. Rosemary” and seeing his smiling face just doesn't seem right. Gone too soon. Rest In Peace.

“ To the Moore Families, We share your pain,What the world has lost is heavens gain,Memories will be held dear, Because that 's the things that will keep him near. Maybe it was something he said or did that made you just laugh and shake your head,but when you saw the smoke, and smelled the aroma in the air, it led you right to the Moore House and to the shed. Ambassador of Goodwill. (RIP) The Street's.

“ Remembering Derrick's wonderful and gentle soul will remain forever in our Family's hearts. He would always offer to help my Father when my Father was working in the yard. Always had a nice and kind word to say along with that smile. A good heart has stopped beating but a good soul has gained wings to heaven. My Family extends our deepest sympathies to the Moore Family. May care and Love of those around you provide comfort and peace to get you through the days ahead. Our most sincere condolences. The Oliver Family.
