

Mr. Edward Lewis Moore

April 6, 1939 - September 3, 2019

Edward L. Moore affectionately known as “Daddy”, “Big Moe”, “Mr. Ed”, and “Mr. Moore” passed away resting peacefully at Duke Regional Hospital on September 3, 2019 at the age of 80. He was born in Durham County, North Carolina on April 6, 1939 to the late Charlie and Candis Moore. Edward was a man of few words but left a lasting impression on all that he came in contact with.

“Daddy” was educated in the Durham Public School System at Little River in Bahama, NC. He was a skilled man that could fix anything. His love and passion was “tending” to his garden. His love for gardening was blessed by the harvest of the many fruits and vegetables; mainly collards and tomatoes.

“Daddy” joined Mt. Calvary Baptist Church at an early age. His faith was as wide as the red sea. He prayed daily for his family in season and out of season. He was a strong man that carried the weight and burdens of others to the Lord daily.

He was preceded in death by his brother, Ervin Moore, sister, Louise Cates, sister, Ruby Woods and grandson Twaun Royster.

Edward L. Moore leaves to cherish his memories, his wife of 61 years, Annie E. Moore; four daughters Annie D. Moore-Baily (Robert), Gloria B. Daniel (Rodney), Sharon J. Moore and Sheila M. Moore; one son, Minister Franklin M. Moore (Annette), an honorary son and daughter, Charlie and Cynthia Street. He also leaves ten grandchildren, Shavondia, Tyrece, Demarcio, Jay, Derrick, Kelly, Asiaa, Brandon, Shabranda and Gabrielle; twenty-two great grandchildren; seven great-great grandchildren; one sister, Jeanie Farrar (Carter); two sisters-in-law, Ruby Parrish and Joyce Farrar; one brother-in-law, James Satterwhite; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and loved ones.

A celebration of Edward's life will be held at Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, 8021 Stagville Rd., Bahama, North Carolina 27503 on Tuesday, September 10th; Family Visitation at 12:00 noon and Life Celebration Service at 1:00 p.m., with Reverend Dr. James W. Smith delivering the eulogy.

Mr. Edward L. Moore will be laid to rest in Mt. Calvary Baptist Church Cemetery.

“ Mr. Moore was a wonderful man, one of the nicest person you could have ever known. I'm so glad me and my cousin Marion went to see him and Mrs Annie a couple of months ago and we were talking about how long my Daddy had been dead and he told me, I can't believe Lent been dead 13 yrs. And now he's gone, that's why life is so short. Him and my Dad (Lent) were good friends. I know they laughing and enjoying old stories like the use to...And to the family you have my Deepest Sympathy and Condolences RIP Mr Moore

“ Moore family, we pray your strength today as you lay your husband, father, grandfather and brother to rest. Know that he has fulfilled God's purpose for his life on this side of heaven and he has received His greatest promise; Eternal Life. Take comfort in knowing you will see him again on the other shore. We Love you!

“ Sincere sympathy to the entire Moore family. The Moore family and my family were neighbors in Bahama in the 1960's. I will never forget the kindness of Mr. Moore in so graciously providing me with a ride to then North Carolina College in 1966 while enroute to his employment in the research triangle park. May the memory of the kind spirit and demeanor of your loved one dwell with you forever..
