

Mrs. Elvira (Angel) Daye Bostic

December 31, 1955 - August 27, 2019

Mrs. Elvira Daye Bostic, daughter of the late Lawrence, Jr. and Louise Daye, was born on December 31, 1955 in Durham, North Carolina passed away unexpectedly on August 27, 2019 at her residence in Raleigh, North Carolina.

An inspiring, loving, kind and multi-talented lady, Elvira strived for excellence in every aspect of her life. Her early education was received in the Durham County Public School System, graduating from Northern High School, Durham, North Carolina. As she felt the need for training related to various job responsibilities, Elvira took classes at local colleges and universities. She taught for over 40 years, currently employed at Hillandale Elementary School prior to her passing.

Elvira's lifelong passion was working with children. She devoted her entire career to students in Durham Public Schools. She started at the Lakeview Kindergarten Center in Durham, and later changed to Hillandale Elementary School. She taught hundreds of students how to read, do math, and be a better writer. Always ready to learn, Elvira took every available class and workshops offered. She was the local representative for the Durham Association of Teacher Assistants, continually being a voice for all Instructional assistants. She was voted by her peers to be Teacher Assistant of the Year several times, and was loved by teachers and students alike. Elvira's biggest gift to children was teaching them how to become the best person they could possibly be, always striving to grow and learn. Her own life was an example of how to be kind, responsible, and respectful of everyone. For more than 40 years, she showed us all how to be better people!

Elvira was a member of Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church, Durham, North Carolina where she served as a member of the youth choir, adult choir and usher board for many years.

Her home and generous heart was open, at all times, to anyone who needed a friend, or even a place to stay. She gladly entertained and prepared many hearty dinners for her friends and family. Always with a beautiful smile, she enjoyed treasured moments of chatting and laughing with those she loved.

Elvira was preceded in death by her parents, Lawrence Daye, Jr. and Louise Hawley Daye; one brother, Dexter Daye.

She leaves to cherish her treasured memories her beloved husband, Joe Bostic; three brothers, Lawrence Daye, III (Bonnie), Donnell Daye (Stephanie) and Alexander Daye (Dorothy); one sister, Joyce Daye McAdoo (Harold); and a host of extended family and friends.

A celebration of Elvira's life will be held at St. Joseph AME Church, 2521 Fayetteville Street, Durham, North Carolina, 27707 on Saturday, August 31st; Family Visitation at 11:00 a.m. and Life Celebration Service at 12:00 noon.

Mrs. Elvira Daye Bostic will be laid to rest in Community Memorial Gardens.

“ Miss Daye, as I knew her, was a kind and gentle woman. I was a mere 5 years old and she was my kindergarten Teacher's aide at the old Hillandale Elementary back in 81/82. I remember thinking she was the prettiest lady I'd ever seen. I've never forgotten her and sad to read that she passed way too soon. I hope she knew how much of an impact she left on the students she taught and I'm sure I'm not the only former student of hers that feels that way. Sending my best to her family and friends.

“ You were such a dear friend and colleague. Easy to talk with and relate to. I loved the way you expressed how you felt about any situation. I will miss you so. May your soul rest in peace and rise in glory. You always loved when I made curried chicken for you and your husband. I will make some soon. I love you always my friend. May God grant you a place in heaven with him. Missing you so!

“ I cannot picture her without a smile. I will always remember her warm personality and the way she made others feel noticed, appreciated, and cared for. I am deeply saddened for her family and loved ones. I hope you know she leaves a lasting mark on the hearts of staff and students at Hillandale. May you know the comfort of our God who promises to be near to the brokenhearted and those crushed in spirit.

Elvira has always been a spark of life in the middle of a dreary world. Every time we passed by each other she would scratch a little on my back and say to me, "hello beautiful!"❤️❤️ She lifted my spirits many times.
