“ *Dear Oliphant Family,
I was deeply sorry to hear about your loss. I would like to share a comforting thought found at John 5:28-29 which says "Do not be amazed at this for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.." This assures us that we will be able to see our loved ones again.*

“ Ernest Oliphant was my friend. He was a kind, gentle and loving man who will be missed by everyone he touched. We at Pleiades Art Gallery will miss his visits, his encouraging words, his bright smile, his warm laugh, his generosity and his love of art. Rest in peace Ernest and I hope there is an unlimited supply of fine paper, sharp pencils and interesting people to sketch. Heaven will be a more beautiful and creative place! Your friend, Sandra Elliott xo
