“ Mr. Frank Jacobs Sr.

“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ So sorry for the loss of this loving man. Bowled many years with Frank. My first flight to Reno he knew I was scared and he promised me I would be safe. Aboard the plane Frank pulled some chicken feathers from his pocket and said "see Tom I told you I would make sure you would be safe flying with me" We went many times to Natinal bowling tournament. Always enjoyed his company.....Thomas Harris

I had worked with Frank, Jr. for several years, and in January of 2005, Frank (Jr.) brought an additional professional mason to help us with a small project.

He did not introduce us at first. I did notice Frank Jr. continually yelled at the top of his lungs to this mason! I figured he would probably fire him at the end of the day.

Then he introduced me to Frank Sr., and explained that Jake did not hear very well!

That was January of 2005, a little more than ten years ago. I am posting a picture of Jake working on that wall, bending 180 degrees from his waist almost to the ground! A feat I could not do 20 years ago!

Jake was a fine person, fun to be around, always a pleasure to talk to - and listen to!
