“ To The Family of Glen Auguste,

Always remember his beautiful smiles as I will. Glen and I shared many laughs at work and yes, he was a favorite. He had a way of bringing people together when there was discord in the work place. I can hear his voice now saying, Ms. Pat. Good bye, my friend. You are not forgotten. Tell my mom and dad I said, hello.

THE WORLD IS MINE

Today upon a bus, I saw a lovely maid with golden hair;

I envied her--she seemed so gay--and wished I were as fair

When suddenly she rose to leave, I saw her hobble down the aisle,

She had one foot and wore a crutch, but as she passed, a smile.

Oh, God, forgive me when I whine;

I have two feet--the world is mine!

And then I stopped to buy some sweets. The lad who sold them had such charm.

I talked to him--he said to me:

“It’s nice to talk with folks like you.

You see,” said he, “I’m blind.”

Oh, God, forgive me when I whine;

I have two eyes--the world is mine!

Then, walking down the street, I saw a child with eyes of blue,

He stood and watched the others play; it seemed he knew not what to do.

I stopped a moment, and then I said: "Why don't you join the others, dear?"

He looked ahead without a word, and then I knew, he could not hear.

*Oh, God, forgive me when I whine;
I have two ears-the world is mine!*

*With feet to take me where I'd go,
With eyes to see the sunset glow,
With ears to hear what I would know,*

*Oh, God, forgive me when I whine;
I'm blessed indeed! The world is mine!*
