“ You were my friend, my buddy, we sang together and everything you called you would say hey baby bring me a turkey sub from subway and a coke, we would stand on your porch and talk about old times, you lived to hear me sing where I am, I would often sing you a few lines and you would start to cry and tell me how thankful you were to God to be alive. Many treated you wrong but you kept pushing and found a great church who treated you so nice. I will miss you so much Howard, you were so special to me and I will always cherish our laughs, jokes and memories, your friend forever

Hey Howard, by now you are resting in Heaven, I'm sure you are fascinated by the work of God's angels as they are checking in. I just thought of you a few days ago and was shocked to find out you are gone. Well rest peaceful in God's loving arms
