“ Mr. James Nathaniel Ballentine

“ I am saddened to hear of the passing of Mr. James Ballentine and especially almost 2 years ago. James and I worked in the Operating rooms in the 1980's. Living near McDougal Terrace, we would sometimes walk home from work. He was and continues to be role model. It was my pleasure knowing him. Also his wife provided Day Care for my son in the early 80's. Sorry for the extremely late entry, But I wanted you to know. Peace. Howard T Williams Jr

 Sharing these kind words of truth from...
Rev. Curtis E. Gatewood...*

*IN HONOR OF THE BROTHER JAMES NATHANIEL BALLENTINE.
DURHAM HAS LOST A JUSTICE GIANT. TO BROTHER JAMES AND FAMILY, YOU HAVE THE BEST OF MY LOVE.*

Brother James Nathaniel Ballentine was such a conscious and great man! He always made me feel he was in my corner before my freedom-fighting activities in Durham were as acceptable as they are now that I have begun working with prominent leaders across the state of North Carolina and have seen many on the wrong side of justice rise and fall .

Brother James loved justice. You show me a man who does not love justice and I will show you a man who does not love most people on earth. I will show you a man who does not love himself. I will show you a man who does not love God.

I know Brother Ballentine loved God because Brother Ballentine loved us. I would see him almost everywhere Durham would have an assembly regarding freedom or justice whether it be at a school board meeting, a homeless shelter, or the Know Book Store.

Jesus' measurement for loving him was not how high we could jump; not how many church services we can attend; not how many scriptures we can quote; and not how much money we could put into the tithe basket, but how much we loved and served the most vulnerable. Brother James went beyond the call of duty doing his part in this regard.

Those of us who saw that love from Brother Ballentine up close will forever miss him and never forget him.

To his beautiful family, we pray for you and will always honor the memory of this beautiful and great man, Brother James Nathaniel Ballentine! Keeping him in my memory will without a doubt keep me inspired to do more!

Brother Ballentine is in a better place, but Durham and this world have become a little less righteous unless the love he had for Durham and the people is restored by those of us who love justice, righteousness, and God the Almighty!

Rev. Curtis E. Gatewood

P.S. Brother rest in peace, you are loved!
