“ Ms. Davis was a wonderful friend whose kindness, warmth, and unwavering support touched the lives of many. She was always there with a listening ear, a comforting word, and a genuine smile that could brighten even the darkest days. Her friendship was a true gift, marked by loyalty, laughter, and heartfelt moments that will be treasured forever by me. Though she is no longer with us, the memories of her caring spirit and the joy she brought will remain alive in my heart. Rest peacefully, dear friend—you will be deeply missed and forever remembered.

“ Jeanette, came back to take care of her Mom, (Ms. Myrtle) I always thought that she was a kind and loving daughter to drop the life she had and move back home. Rest in peace
