

Mr. Jermaine Van Troy Mitchell

October 27, 1989 - June 12, 2018

On June 11, 2018, earth lost a giving soul when Jermaine Van Tony Mitchell departed this life. Jermaine was born in Durham, North Carolina on October 27, 1989 to Sandra McKeithan and the late Michael Mitchell. He was raised in Burlington, North Carolina and attended Hugh M. Cummings High School. Upon graduating, he attended college at Fayetteville State University, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology.

Jermaine was an advocate for children, teens, and women. He coached a little league team for both basketball and baseball. He mentored youth that were going to college. Jermaine made an impact on everyone he encountered. His presence will truly be missed.

Jermaine was preceded in death by his father, Michael Mitchell; his brother, Randy Anderson; his paternal and maternal grandparents, Thad Otis and Daisy Mitchell, and Clarence and Olivia McKeithan; and his uncles, Clarence McKeithan, Jr., James Westmann, and Ronnie McKeithan.

Jermaine leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Sandra McKeithan; two brothers, Gill Anderson (Tasha) and Jeff Mitchell (Tylisa); two sisters, Shanetha Anderson and Korketta Troy; two uncles, Keith Greg Mitchell (Brenda) and Tony Mitchell; three aunts, Marlene Aikens (David), Joyce Phillips (Willie), and Cecillia Taborn; a best friend and a brother in spirit,

Denzel Wynn; a best friend and a sister in spirit, Brianna Foust; his beloved pet, Kimbo; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other family members and friends.

“ Hey Jermaine !

It's been a long time since we last spoke, but I heard about your death & couldn't believe it was true. Your sweet spirit will forever be remembered & I pray that you have found peace. Thanks for welcoming me with open arms on my first day at Cummings! We go way back & I'll never forget you. 💙

“ Wow, Jermaine... this is all too real. Although we haven't been friends since childhood, meeting you in 2014 was something I'll never forget. We clicked like we knew each other for a long time. I always told you how I wanted my future boyfriend to dress like you (lol), and I always looked up to you because you inspired me to be a family development specialist aka family advocate. Just so you know I made it... I'm a family advocate!! Thanks to you and your motivation, I will be the best family development specialist I can be. I dare not judge; instead I pray that your soul has found peace. R.I.P. you will be missed

“ To the family,
I pray for comfort, to ease your mind
The loss of a loved one, will heal over time
He is deeply loved, by family and friends
Flowers, cards, kind words again.....
Missing the friend and brotherly love
Remember the conversations, laughs and hugs
Brothers are known for competition and dares
Just another way of showing that you care.

“ I am so thankful that our paths crossed a few years ago. You were like one of my children. I will forever hold that smile that could light up a room close to my heart. Only God knows why and I dare not question that. I pray your soul has found peace.
