“ *I miss you like, you might me. Some people can't be replaced. I finally have a hook on your fried chicken. I'm great with it. I haven't had the notion of your sweet potato pie. Sorry if people didn't treat you great. I made mistakes. Can we talk ? Still love you!

“ I was very saddened to hear of the passing of one of my favorite school teachers at New London Elementary School, in New London, NC. Mrs. McClain was one of those teachers that you never forget - especially her lovely smile. I remember that she was expecting a child - perhaps her first?- when she chaperoned our 8th grade dance, the Spring Fling. I have a photograph of her somewhere that I couldn't seem to throw away - she was chaperoning our dance and she was wearing a very pretty pink dress. Rest in peace, Mrs. McClain...and may God bless all of your family and friends who I know will miss you very much. Thank you for your gift of inspiration and education. I will never forget you.

“ I'm sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. The Bible promises that very soon death will be done away with at Revelation 21:3,4. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. " I hope the promises of the Bible can bring you comfort during this difficult time.

“ I am going to miss Mom even though I haven't been to Durham in years. When Russell and I would go by and visit I still remember the hugs she gave as if I were family. I pray that the Lord send comfort to all the family and friends. Give Pop a big hug for me.
