“ Grissom family, i am sorry for the loss of your love one. The only words of comfort is from the Bible. Jehovah God promise to do away with his enemy death. A favorite scripture that reminds us of that promise is Revelation 21:4 No more death, sickness nor pain nor mourning. The former things have passed away. Until this is fulfilled you can find comfort in knowing all things that Jehovah promise will come true because God cannot lie. May the many fond memories and this scripture be of encouragement during this time.
