“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ Ms Josephine was a beautiful woman inside and out, and a longtime friend to my mother (Blanche). I saw her last year on her birthday I think at Biscuitville and we sat near each other and chatted for a while . She spoke lovingly of all her children. I know she will be missed by you all and I too will miss seeing her from time to time around Durham

My condolences to the Williams Family

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I hope you find comfort in Psalm 34:18. "God is close to the broken-hearted and saves those crushed in spirit. "Make God your comfort. He "heals the broken-hearted." Psalm 147:3 and provides "refuge and strength in times of distress." Psalm 46:1

“ Tonya and Pete, Ms. Josephine will always be a fond memory. She was always such a loving and caring person. Sorry i missed the service, but i had a prior commitment. Have Pete to contact tj so we can talk about old times on umstead and Burnette street. Will continue to uplift your family in prayer during this time.
