“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ *Harris Family,
I am very sorry for your loss. May you be encouraged by the words at Revelation 21:3,4 " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more,neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This scripture and your many fond memories will help you get through this difficult time.*

*Sincerely,
Elizabeth*

“ To my daddy as we affectionately called you. Daddy I can't hold back my tears as I sit here trying to type this farewell letter to you. You will never know much you mean to me It seems just like yesterday that we were kid's and you were driving your blue F1 150 Ford Truck with Chuck and Spankey sitting on the back and Sharon and I sitting in the front with you driving changing gears, that is something I will never forget those good ole days.

More importantly than anything you gave us love true love that's not what a lot of families get . Daddy you are our Matriarch you made it happen with your strong thinking skills, you told us so many important things about go to school and get your education not only that you told us the importance of empowering your own self to work for yourself. I can see that we have taken after you a whole lot in so many ways.

Daddy I will never forget you I am so fortunate to have had a daddy like you. Daddy take your rest, no more Parkinson's to battle with no more pain.

I promise to you that I will take care of mama. Daddy I'm not saying good bye because good bye's are forever I'm saying farewell. Until we meet again

Love,
Lynne
