“ “Uncle Julius” as we affectionately knew him was a warmhearted person with a genuine passion for loving people. His conversations were always energetic and interesting. It is a special privilege to have known such a great teacher of love and patience. All of us will carry special memories of the positive effect he had on our lives and we will miss him dearly. We send our deepest love and sympathy to the family. Praying for God to comfort you and surround you with His grace. Please let us know if there is anything we can do. We Love you.

“ To Mrs. Myrtle Bass and family,
We extend our prayers and deepest sympathies to you on the loss of Mr. Bass. His life was a shining example of humanity at its' best. His family gave him strength and purpose, and in turn he gave the world around him love. He stood with a sense of dignity; he walked with a sense of purpose; and he lived with a heart full of love for his family.

Those that were privileged to know him will never forget him. While our hearts are heavy with grief, we thank God for sharing this generous spirit with us and thus enriching our lives beyond measure.

May God bless you all.

Sincerely
Karl, Pam, Erica, & Ryan

Julious,
You were one of GOD'S CHOSEN ANGELS. My lasting memories will linger forever. The farm life taught us how to be humble and appreciate the small gifts from GOD. Your demeanor for life will remain in my heart forever. I will always love YOU.
Sister,
Eunice

Dear Mrs. Bass, Wanda Bass Rudd, Eunice Bass Gist, Daye and Bass families, and friends,

Please accept my condolences in the loss of your husband, father and brother. I regret I am unable to attend the services, but please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers. It is so heart-warming to read the tributes in memory of Mr. Julious Bass, especially from Wanda Bass Rudd and Eunice B. Gist.

I am already thanking God for providing peace, comfort and continued blessings for all of you as you cherish all the fond memories of Mr. Bass.

*Sincerely,
James, Monica, Ivey and Claire Rogers
