“ Dear Felicia,

You do may not remember me; but Yvonne was married to my son Guy. That wedding may very well be the last time we have seen each other.

I remember Kate well and to you and all of her family, my sincerest sympathy - may she rest in peace.

For those who have been faithful, life has ended, but has merely changed; and when this earthly abode dissolves into dust, an eternal dwelling place awaits in heaven.

“ Foster family I am very sorry for your loss. The pain and grief and sorrow that death cause can seem unbearable. This is the time to turn to the Bible for comfort. The Bible teaches there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous. (Acts24:15) Our enemy death will be swallowed up for ever. Isaiah 25:8. For now take comfort in knowing that the God of comfort will comfort your family during your grief and your day's ahead. Your " Kate" is sleeping. I hope these scriptures will give you some comfort alone with your many fond memories.
