“ *Terrence, our hearts go out to you; your mother's love lives on in the person you have become. We are sorry for the loss of your mom. Please know you are not alone, and Stacy and I are here for you. We were so blessed to have known your mother; her spirit touched everyone she met. Your Mother's love was a beautiful thing, and I know she is deeply missed. Words feels inadequate, but please know that we are thinking of you during this difficult time. We are here to listen if you would like to share memories of your mom, when you feel up to it. The bond between a mother and son is so special. Our heart is with you as you honor her memory. Your Mother's spirit and wisdom live on in you, and that is a beautiful thing to cherish. Please accept our heartfelt condolence. “ My deepest condolences to the family. Mrs. Davis has known me since I was a baby. This breaks my heart so much. She was one of the sweetest people you would ever want to meet. As I was growing up, I loved seeing her sit outside and I would give her the biggest hug. She was one of the mothers of Lexington Avenue. Mrs. Davis will be deeply missed. I love you, mama Davis so much. RIH Queen! Love Kaishia 🥰🥰🙏
