“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

“ My cousin 'Junior' was always a kind and gentle spirit. Despite our age difference when we were growing up, he always took time to look after his 'little cousins' ... My sister and I used to spend summers with Grandma Corrina and Junior and his brothers and sisters were our closest playmates. We spent time with Uncle Keaston and Aunt Hallie in the kitchen with wonderful food and on the porch eating watermelon and spitting seeds into the yard! Oh the memories! May the memories of all those times together as a family bring you comfort. Psalm 125:1 "They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth forever." God in his infinite wisdom called home his faithful servant. May we find comfort in knowing "Junior" is with his Lord and Savior resting from his labor.

God Bless and keep you. Your Cousin Joyce Bass Valentine & Family
