“ So sorry to have missed seeing Leavy in the last few years. I will always have the deepest respect for him and Rod, and all the Barbees. Leavy's friendship meant a lot to me. We go way back...from the Southern Pig, to LeeVee's Ride, to the Deli Box. I will surely miss him.

“ Barbee family, I am sincerely sorry for your loss. May you find encouraging the words of the Bible. No mere words can give comfort like the many promises found in the Bible. One such scripture Act;24:15 "There is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." Death is Jehovah God's enemy and he promise at Isa. 25:8 " He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it." When death is done away with there will be no more mourning and tears, these will be things of the past. I hope you find this encouraging. I am looking forward to seeing my parents again and you can see your (Leavy). The days ahead will be full of memories alone with the pain of the loss of your love one. I hope you will find the scriptures comforting.

*Sincerely,
Elizabeth*
