“ Mr. Leon, as we often addressed him with respect, was part of our family for many years. His daughter is my niece Latasha. I will miss him as family and as my friend. I will also miss him for his creative abilities, his seriousness and his kindness, especially in the final years of my late Mother's illness. He was a gifted artisan, artist and chef. I will be forever grateful for the nourishing meals that he prepared for my Mother and for the many other kindnesses that he extended to the family. He lived a long, interesting and meaningful life that was filled many accomplishments. His passing is a reminder of how short and fleeting is our life. And it served as a template for his survivors. I am surprised that so many years have passed and that he had lived long enough to become an octogenarian. I pray for the comfort of his widow and his immediate family in this time of transition and readjustment.
