“ I first met LeRoy Jones in 1974. I was walking alone to Sheppard Junior High and he came along side me and asked, Hey why are you walking alone? We were friends from that day on. He went to the Army and I went to the Air Force. We were friends for years. I want to send my sincere condolences to Angelia (wife), Barbara Jones, and Sharon. May God comfort and keep you all in his grace and peace. His friend Ant.

“ To my Aunt Bobby, cousin Sharon and all of the family, God is close to the broken-hearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Psalms 34:18. I surround you all with love and prayers. Leroy will forever be known as one of the most loving and funniest cousins ever!! My siblings and I will remember him and love him forever! I rejoice in knowing he is in the presence of God and a host of family and friends who've gone before him! Be encouraged, family! We love you all ❤️❤️❤️❤️
