“ To Cheri and family. My prayers goes out to u Cheri. I was looking for someone else, and saw ya sister name and picture, and started reading her Obit. She look just like u Cheri, and I saw ya name. May God send his Angels down and wrap his arms around u, and ya family. I just lost my Mom in April but God blessed her for 83 years on earth. I will continue to keep u all in my prayers. Wilhelmenia Williams. Cheri I worked with u at UNC Hospitals, and Duke Regional.

“ You where very much so loved and will always be remembered. I have many memories of you but the one ill share today is when me and you slept side by side in my aunts living room and just talked. You where the best listener and never judged me. Plus you always gave the best advice. I will also miss your potato salad which you refuse to give me the recipe for O_ -.
