“ Just wanted to send my sincere condolences to the family. Who cannot forget that beautiful smile of hers? She used to keep me laughing back in the 80's when I was just a kid in high school. She always took time out to speak, never met a stranger. And loved the way she took care of her mom! She was such a loving person. But now she is resting. Can't wait to see her again when she awakes. Love you guys. May Jehovah continue to give you the strength you need to deal with this loss of a sweet soul.

“ lisa was sooo instrumental in my spiritual progress being a teen at the age of 14yo moving from jersey to nc joining the original central congation on junction rd. she jumped right in and was welcoming to our family and she took time to spend lots of time with me in service and recreation. without sisters like her our young people in that time would have been lost. she and david mad a huge impact on the campbell family. I feel your loss as a family..truely...no words can really sooth u. but i will keep all of you in my prayers. she along with my mother are just resting....we have the hard work to do now'

“ My memories of Lisa. Such a loving and caring person, I met Lisa about 4/5 years ago at the Junction Road Kindom Hall we became casual friends until about 2 years ago with her persistence making the way for her to be my Bible Study teach which made it possible for me to dedicate my life to our loving father Jehovah just 2 months before her passing...I will miss Lisa she was my inspiration I know with the resurrection hope I will see her again...gone but will never forget

“ I will always miss Lisa's heartwarming smile and hugs, and her love of people was so endearing. She was a faithful sister in the truth and touched many people's lives. She is now in Jehovah's memory until we see her again.in the resurrection. My prayers are with the Williams family.

“ I will truly miss my dear friend Lisa. I hope the family will continue to find comfort in Jehovah's promises. One that comforts me during this difficult time is found at Isaiah 25:8. There it says "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

I look forward to seeing Lisa and her beautiful smile again in paradise. Until then, she is in the safest place there is and that is Jehovah God's memory. He won't forget his zealous servant, Lisa, and neither will we forget our loving and beautiful friend.

“ Family my love goes to you all. We will miss Lisa so much. And will especially remember her zealous spirit and the unbreakable love she had for Jehovah. She has helped so many people and in the most important way--spiritually. I'm grateful that I had the opportunity to learn from her as my Bible study conductor. I will miss the time we shared in the ministry, the Bible studies she taught me to conduct, and her feisty, loving, and giving spirit.

We certainly looking forward to welcoming her back soon. Until then, I will continuously pray for Jehovah to provide you all with the endurance and strength necessary to continue on. And may you find comfort in all the memories you shared with Lisa. Love you all.

“ Lisa was always a joy to see. I remember her from when I was a child, and she always exuded pure love for Jehovah and was such an example of what a true Christian should be. Her smile showed her joy, and she knew how to tell it like it is. So sorry to hear about this, but we are one day closer to seeing her again. I thank Jehovah God for his promise of resurrection to a perfect, everlasting life in the paradise and for sending his son Jesus Christ who gave his life for us to have that opportunity. Lisa believed firmly in such hope, and we left grieving HAVE to cling to that hope. Lisa would tell us the same. Agape. My condolences to the Williams family and friends.
