“ Lucille was a dear friend from high school. She had a pleasant way about her with a very soft spoken voice. I never heard her utter a disparaging comment about anyone. Lucille took time to write letters of comfort to me when I was far from home in Vietnam. I will cherish the memories of my long lost friend who I have known since we were teenagers. Rest In Peace my friend. You are gone but not forgotten!!!

“ Ms. Lucille was a beautifully resilient and strong woman whose love for her family was apparent in every conversation we had. Her eyes would light up and she would smile so brightly when recounting the details of their progress. I looked forward to talking with her every week and hearing her sweet, loving stories about those who gave her joy. I'll miss those adorable hats and her precious deep chuckle. Thank you for your humor and inspiration, Ms. Lucille!
