“ May the Fisher family find peace and comfort in the promise spoken by our lord Jesus Christ found at John 5:28, 29. There he said that one day "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." This grand prospect lies before dear Lynn. She will awaken to an earth where sickness and death are no more. (Psalm 37:29; Revelation 21:4) Until that time, remember that our loving Creator, being the "God of all comfort," invites you, the grieving family, to "throw all your anxiety on him, because he cares for you." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4; 1 Peter 5:7) Please accept my condolences and take care Fisher family.

“ I only just met Lynn within this past year, but she was a wonderfully loving mother, friend and wife. She loved my daughter Jazlyn like her own and often asked if she could stay for extended periods of time at her home. Our last time together was just under two weeks before she passed and we shared a lovely Sunday dinner with each other. She was a very special person who was cheerful, funny, and made people laugh all around her. She will be missed and her light still shines on.
