“ I was not aware of Mrs. Allen demise however, I am sad to learn of this news as Mrs. Allen always attended our Red and White Luncheon for seniors. She was a beautiful Red Hatter and represented her organization so well. I will miss her love to us and always taking our annual photo.

“ To the Allen family, I was saddened to hear of the transition of your mother. Growing up in the neighborhood, she always welcomed me into your home early in the mornings to walk to school with the girls. A beautiful woman with a beautiful spirit, I pray that your memories will remain a source of comfort for the days to come. May God continue to bless and keep you and make his face to shine upon you, this day and forever more.
