“ Marvin and I met in high school at Baltimore City College and remained friends through the years. It is such a compliment to Marvin to see that the way those who knew him later in life describe him the way I knew Marvin, Personable great dry sense of humor and compassionate. Marvin was extremely proud of his basketball prowess in high school. No one in Baltimore could take an offensive foul better than Marvin. While we didn't see each other often we would talk about once a year, and he never forgot my birthday. Marvin enriched so many and my deepest condolences to Gloria and Marvin's entire family. May his memory be a blessing to all who knew him.

Marvin was an exemplary Eagle! His Devotion to NCCU could be seen in his promotion of NCCU through his Eagleland where he shamelessly promoted NCCU and encouraged people to stay in touch. When we relocated from Ohio, Marvin needed us about leaving behind our dear friend "all alone" who was in his 1971 Class. Best regards to Marvin's family. Ronnie and Verlene DeWitt

We also remember Marvin walking the sloping hills and verdant green with his duffle bag selling NCCU clothing, signs, etc. Then he opened Eagleland, and Alumni were set. Rest in peace my friend.. ਸ੍ਰੀ ਸ੍ਰੀ ਸ੍ਰੀ

I am deeply saddened by this news of the passing of my dear friend Marvin. He was indeed the epitome of Eagle Pride! Marvin was always supportive of my daughter Audrey Barbee when she was running for anything. He gave of his substance in seeing that she had a successful run during her competition. Free t-shirts, jackets the wooden coins to buy more of his products. He was such a cheerful giver. Each year I went to get a fresh shirt as I would say. He always greeted me with a smile. He will forever be missed. My continued prayers for the family and friends. Peaceful rest my dear friend Marvin.

Marvin and I were at NCCU during the same era. My first remembrance of him was as a basketball player. During that era, most male students lived in Chidley Hall so we shared that space. I knew him as a clean-cut respectable guy. So sorry to hear this. Condolences to his family.

My prayers are with the Bass family at this time. I remembered and got to know Marvin when he was a student at NCCU and I worked in the Bursar office. He always had a smile and a joke. We became quick friends. Then he went to work at NC Mutual Life Insurance and continued to drop in. He gradually began his business and eventually opened Eagleland. We continued our friendship and were often caught in the store cutting up. I loved purchasing his merchandise and displaying it on my page and the stores page. I remember the wooden nickels. Marvin was a quiet gentle giant. My memories and times spent at the store will be forever in my heart. Take your rest dear friend you are so deserving. You will not find a more loyal NCCU Alum. 🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏
