“ Marvin was a nice guy ~ I sat next to him at the dialysis center ~ we talked sometimes for a couple hours and he shared with me about Dallas and his history with Campisi restaurant for 25 years' ~ the last memory I have of Marvin ~ was him saying thank you to me for something I did for him, and then him telling me that he didn't say that to too many people, and he said it again sincerely "Thank you" I thought Marvin was a good guy and a gentle soul, a one of a kind type person ~ Rest In Peace Marvin ~ this post written by Ed Treadaway
