“ Mary Ann Roper ,a quiet professional who served with dedication while assigned to Blackwater air assets. Mary was someone who kept to herself, focused on her duties, and carried out her role without seeking the spotlight. But when she did open up, it was always about her daughter. Her love as a mother shined through every word, and she counted down the days until she could return home to her. Mary holds a special place in our hearts, not only for her service, but because she is the only woman listed on our Blackwater Family Scroll. We honor her life, her service, and her memory. Ms. Mary Ann Roper, Blackwater. June 27, 1977 ,December 25, 2015.And if Anyone ever has something Negative to say about her , it was probably because She knew She was special. She was Blackwater, say no more.

“ Dear Roper Family,
I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. When someone you love dies the pain, grief and loneliness can feel unbearable. This is the time to go to God's Word the Bible. The God of the Bible Jehovah is the God of comfort (2Corinthian 1:3,4) . Jehovah never intended for us to grow old get sick and die, because of Adam's sin we inherited sin and death. Genesis 3:3, 15, Romans 5:12. Your Mary has the hope of the promise found at Act 24:15 " There is going to be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous ." May these scriptures alone with your many fond memories help you get through the days ahead.
Sincerely,
Elizabeth

“ I was stationed with SSG Roper at Fort Bragg and deployed. I really liked her spirit and i hated hiw people were so negative towards her. She was a great person and told it like like it was. I remember she always talked about her daughter, which is something we also had in common.

“ Mary and I were in the military together. A lot of people didn't understand her but I did. We became good friends, even after the military we stayed in touch. She was fun to be around. Her warm and given personality will truly be missed.
