“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my heartfelt sympathy. While you are preparing to lay your loved one to rest, to sleep for a little while in death(John 11:11), I hope you will find comfort in knowing that soon Jesus' promise of the resurrection will be fulfilled; when he will awaken those who are sleeping in death, restoring them back to life, to live eternally on the Paradise earth.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled; may Jehovah God soothe your grieving hearts now and grant you peace and comfort.during this time of sorrow.-Matthew5:4.

“ To the family of Mary Louise Minor Boston I am a bible student and would like to share a word of encouragement in your time of loss. At Revelation 21:3,4 it tells us that God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and that death will be no more neither mourning or outcry be anymore the former things will have passed away. In the days and weeks to come as you continue to cope with your loss please keep that scripture close in mind as we are in the final part of the days and those words will soon come true. May Jehovah God bless your family in dealing with your loss.
