

Mrs. Mary Carr Rhodes

September 14, 1917 - March 18, 2017

Mrs. Mary Carr Rhodes was born on September 14, 1917, in Durham, North Carolina to the late Isaac and Winnie Carr Holloway. Her husband, the late Herbert Rhodes Sr., precedes her in death. She departed this life on Saturday, March 18, 2017, at The Carver Living Center in Durham, North Carolina.

Mary C. Rhodes attended Durham County Schools and went to work at the Liggett and Myers Tobacco Company for more than 50 years, where she later retired. She was a faithful and dedicated member of the Church of God of Prophecy and served in many capacities within the church: Lay Minister, Pastor's Committee and Culinary Committee. Mary was best known for her honesty, determination, courage, integrity and living a holistic life serving others, particularly those in need. After leaving Bible Study on Wednesday nights, she would come home, drink coffee and read the New Testament, it was important to her to comprehend what she was reading.

She loved to cook and sing, especially during the holiday season while family lavished her with gifts of love. She loved to see her sons, daughters and others gather to share stories, eat her well-known barbecue turkey, homemade peach cobbler, and sweet potato pies. Even in her old age, she continued to sing hymns and songs of praise (very loudly)—so, this validated that her life was filled with joy and Gods' love for all people.

She leaves to cherish her memories: five sons, William T. Rhodes (Shirley), Ronald Rhodes (Nora) of Rock Hill, SC., Connell Rhodes, Coleman Rhodes, and Roland Rhodes, all of Durham, NC.; two daughters, Inez Parrish (Curtis) and Deltha Rhodes, both of Durham, N.C.; one sister-in-law, Louise Rhodes of Durham, N.C. and host of grandchildren, great and great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Grandmother Rhodes modeled the life of a sweet, gentle, loving Woman of God. She grew sweeter as the years went by! Loved going to see her, spending time with her and singing songs of joy together! Thank you, Lord, for a life well-lived- representing you and your Son-Jesus Christ.
