“ When our loved ones close their eyes in death it touches our hearts in ways unimaginable. Our lives are never the same because they are no longer with us. The bible describes death as an "enemy", and rightly so. It destroys the lives of ones that are left behind, leaving their hearts empty and in pain. How good to know that our loving heavenly father has already guaranteed that our dead loved ones will live again! Acts 17:31 assures us that the death of his son provides us with this certainty. Although we miss our loved ones how wonderful it will be when we see them again! I am sure that you will look forward to seeing Mary and sharing so many more precious moments with her. Rest assured, God's promises will never fail. That is impossible! Titus1:2

“ *Parrish family,
I am sorry for your loss. May your family find encouragement from knowing the wonderful promise found in the Bible. ( Re.21:3,4) " And he will wipe out every tear from their eye, death will be no more, nor pain nor sickness. The former things have passed away." This scripture and your many fond memories I pray will get you through this difficult time.
Sincerely,
Elizabeth*
