“ The first time that we met Mrs. Wilson was at the bridal shower that she gave for my daughter. I thought it was so thoughtful of her. Mrs. Wilson embraced our whole family. She immediately made us feel at home. Over the years we have enjoyed her

“ Ms. Melder was an amazing, kind, and deeply loving woman. She was always the first to greet you with a warm hello and a sincere question about how you were doing. She had a way of making everyone feel seen, valued, and cared for. And she didn't just ask—she followed up. If you shared a concern or struggle, she remembered, and she checked in. No matter how she was feeling physically, she remained upbeat and focused on others rather than herself. She would say she was doing well, even in discomfort, and she always looked forward to Bible study and gathering at church. Her bright smile and loving hugs will stay with us. While we will miss her deeply, we rejoice that she is now home with our loving Father, free from pain, whole and at peace in His presence. My deepest and heartfelt condolences go out to Ms. Melder's family. Sylvia Suarez “ Meverleen served with the Guest Experience team for many years as a greeter and she was so happy just being at church and welcoming others, thats where I first had the pleasure of meeting her. Later I became better acquainted with her through a women's Bible fellowship group we attended together, which she regularly attended.

One thing I know for sure regarding our beautiful Sister Melver as I stood in awe as I watched her over the years come into church and faithfully serve and sit at Jesus's feet so happily, her greatest reward could not be touched it is her crown which I am sure shes now wearing as she is sitting at the feet of our Father. She is happy and she would want us to be for her. Rejoice for she is no longer suffering. Thank you Father for bringing our Melver home peacefully and wrapping her in your loving arms. I pray that her family finds some peace and comfort knowing this and this is certainly what she'd want for them. Love & Blessings my sincere condolences and continued prayers, Cathy Garcia

“ It was such a pleasure to have met Mrs. Meverleen at church in Florida. Although I am retired myself, Mrs. Melver always called me a little girl when she saw me. I take Joy in knowing that, I looked forward to seeing her and she looked forward to seeing me. She was feisty and would speak her mind and I loved it. I will miss our visits with her but I am glad to have the memories. Sending hugs and kisses to you Mrs. Melver.
