I often wondered how Ms. Mary was doing. I met her some years ago at a fundraiser at the Russell Rosenwald School in North Carolina. She auctioned one of her handmade quilts which I purchased. At the time she was around 90 years old. I told her how beautiful and amazing she looked and that I knew she would reach 100+! I am saddened to see she is gone but my heart is warmed to see she did indeed hit 100! May her memory be a blessing❤️🙏 - Kimberly Ransom, Chicago

“ I read of a man who stood to speak
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates that would be on the tombstone
From the beginning...to the end

He noted that first came the date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears,
But he said what mattered most of all
Was the dash between those years

For that dash represents all the time
That they spent alive on earth.
And now only those who loved them
Know what that little line is worth

For it matters not, how much we own,
The cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash.

So, think about this long and hard.
Are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left
That can still be rearranged.

If we could just slow down enough
To consider what's true and real
And always try to understand
The way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger
And show appreciation more
And love the people in our lives
Like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect

*And more often wear a smile,
Remembering this special dash Might only last a little while*

*So, when your eulogy is being read
With your life's actions to rehash...
Would you be proud of the things they say
About how you spent YOUR dash? Love Roz*

“ *When peace like a river attendth my way, when sorrow like sea billows roll .
Whatever my lot thou has taught me to say, It is well, It is well with my soul.
I met Sister Pearl Holman during my fellowship with the New Home and Durham Missionary Baptist Association. She was prompt, present and purpose driven. She supported her church Cain's Chapel and represented them and her SAVIOR with honor.
