“ I've spent the last several years trying to find Mrs. McGill. Today, I mentioned to her name to one of my clients and one of Mrs. McGill's former colleagues from Person and she mentioned that she'd passed away recently. I am so broken hearted.

She taught me art for three years at Person and she was my absolute fave teacher during those tumultuous years of adolescence. She saw straight through my sarcastic exterior and touched my life with her love, kindness, gentleness and amazing sense of humor. I've thought of her often all these years.

I am deeply saddened that I never got a chance to reunite with Mrs. McGill, but I am glad she is jubilant and peaceful now in the arms of our Lord.

I love you, Mrs. McGill

“ Shenita and family,
Peggy will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with you all at this time. Peggy will definitely be missed. She will be remembered as mild-mannered, humble, and kind. Though she had a quiet spirit, she always lit up a room with her smile and kindness. May you all find peace and remember her love during your loss.
