“ I’m sad to learn of Peter’s passing, but joy-filled at his reunion with loved ones. Thank you, Peter, for helping me and my students last year by making an easel/podium from spare parts when one couldn’t be found.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Peter's passing. Peter always was so helpful and I looked forward to his smile and kind words. He will be missed at Immaculata.

“ This is Fr. Jacek Orzechowski, OFM. For three years, until last January when I moved to upstate NY, I served as pastor of the Immaculate Conception parish in Durham. I'd like to offer Peter's family my sincere condolences for your loss. I admired Peter for being a man of integrity, authenticity and love. He loved people in his quiet way. In particular, he delighted in sharing his big smile and joy with the children in our parochial school. He also cared for God's creation and plants. He took a little twig from the fig tree that grew near the church and planted in in front of the parish office. At first, it appeared that it was not going to bear any fruit. But then it grew and produces a number of figs. Peter was happy about it and delighted in that little miracle and that, in fact, he had some role in it. I have no doubt that Peter has been welcomed to heaven by God with open arms and that he's counted among its many saints. When I think of Peter, I think of a quote from the Bible, "God is love and those who abide in love abide in God and God in them." May the soul of Peter "Ras Supa" Sampson rest in peace.
