

Mr. Philip Goodwin Freelon

March 26, 1953 - July 9, 2019

With sorrow and fond memories, the passing of Philip Goodwin Freelon on Tuesday, July 9, 2019 is being shared by his loving wife Nnenna Freelon. Phil was not a native of Durham, North Carolina even though many thought he was. However, he was born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late parents, Allan and Elizabeth Freelon.

Freelon added unique attractions to several cities inclusive of The National Museum of African American History and Culture (Washington, DC).

This remarkable man will linger in the hearts of admirers world-wide as we celebrate his legacy.

In lieu of flowers, Phil has asked that those who want to honor his legacy become sustaining donors of Northstar Church of the Arts, which he founded in 2018 with his wife, so that the same creative and spiritual energies that nurtured him throughout his life, may positively impact others, especially in his adopted home of Durham, North Carolina.

Honoring the life of Phil Freelon, a memorial service will be held on Saturday, September 28, 2019, at 3:30 p.m., at Durham County Human Services, 414 East Main St., Durham, North Carolina 27701.

Working with Phil on the new Emancipation Park Project in Houston was most memorable! His personality was always genuine. We ,the Black Architects are Professionally proud.

“ A kind and gentle soul. After watching Peirce interview with Tim Pulliam several times the love and the tribute to the wonderful husband, father, father in law and grandfather what great memories. Not since Luther Vandross " To Dance with my father again " that you could sense the love and most of all the respect for each other among family and friends. What a legacy ... stay in your truth-continued blessings to the family.

“ Though I did not know Mr. Freelon personally, I had the opportunity to attend a function where his wife sang for my church (St. Paul AME Church of Raleigh) as part of the Governor's Arts Program, and I enjoyed her performance in the movie "What Women Want." My prayers go out to Mr. Freelon's wife and family, and I pray GOD will give you all the strength to celebrate his life and legacy. May GOD bless his soul and spirit, and may he rest in peace. GOD bless.
