“ I met phillip, 56 years ago when I was just a kid. He was such a nice person, and everone in my family had nothing but good things to say about him. I thank God for allowing him to be a part of my life, and my family's life, and he will never be forgotten. My condolences to his family and we share your sorrow, as well.

“ Hi my name is Kayla and I am a local bible teacher. I am so sorry for the loss of your loved one. There is a very comforting scripture at Isaiah 25:8. It says that soon Jehovah will swallow up death forever and that he will wipe away all of the tears. So we can all look forward to a time when death will be no more. I hope that this scripture can bring some true comfort during these difficult times.

Phillp Allen married my dear cousin, Brenda many years ago and they had a special love that you could see every time you so them together. The lost of this dear soul will be felt for many years. But I know he is in the arms of a loving God. I know God will be with the Brenda and her children and grandchildren at this time.

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. May the comforting promises from God ease your pain during this difficult time. One of which is found at Isaiah 25:8. There it says "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.”

Again, please accept my sincere condolences for your loss.

“ As I think about Philip, I reflect worn a recent conversation that we had. Neither of us, as young people, had the nerve to sing in front of people. So I wanted Phil to break out his golden voice and make me one of the privileged ones who would be able to boast about having heard him sing. Well he wouldn't do it for me. But oh how we laughed about this even when he was very close to his departure. What a pleasant spirit. Wow, what a good heart. What a friend.
